BREAKOUT CONFERENCES

A Heart for Hospitality

Explore the joy of hospitality beginning with God's Word, the heart of hospitality. Discover tips on creating a warm atmosphere, involving the family and reaching out to your neighbors and the unreached.

As You Go

What 'as you go' moments do you have? Are you following Matthew 28:19-20 as you work, vacation, shop, and more? Join the conversation as we consider ways to walk in the way of the Lord.

Changing Lives with Christmas Backpacks

What's new about Christmas Backpacks this year and what is the same? Come hear about this amazing opportunity to change lives!

Even More Ideas Galore!

There are countless ways that your church can be involved in meeting needs and sharing the love of Jesus. Hear about mission projects and activities for churches of all sizes.

Finding Strength Through Joy

The JOY of the Lord is my STRENGTH. Let's laugh together and find joy even when circumstances are trying to steal that joy.

From Tobacco Juice to Stolen Pigs

Hear stories from Alabama Baptist history, funny and inspirational, that show how God uses the past to lead and encourage us today. You'll also learn about recording, preserving and sharing your individual and church family stories.

Hope in the Mountains

Hear a story of redemption from a NAMB missionary who has seen God revive something that was "lost" in order to save the lost. Come learn how this missionary has taken an old, closed-down high school building to bring hope to individuals who might not come in the doors of a church.

I'm A New Associational Leader

How is serving as an associational leader different from serving as a church leader? Discover some good things for associational leaders to know!

In the Uttermost

How do our field representatives tell people about Jesus in a place where it's difficult to even mention His name? Come and hear about living out Acts 1:8 in the uttermost.

Mangos and Sticky Rice

Come and hear how God uses the sweet and “sticky” situations to make His name known in Asia. Learn what it is like to live between the rice fields and share the Gospel in everyday life. Discover how you, too, can use everyday life to share the Good News with global impact!

Missionary Musings

Hear stories from our Alabama missionaries and their work around the world. Learn about opportunities for connecting with them for prayer and partnership.

Passing It On

We want to pass on God's heart for missions to the next generation. How can we best do that? This session looks at ways to involve younger women in what God is doing.

Raising Missional Children

Raising kids is hard work! Join the discussion about the struggles and joys of raising kids who understand their role in the Great Commission and leave with ideas you can use at home, with grandkids, or in your local church for engaging children in sharing God's love with His world.

The Elephant in the Room

Learn how these missionaries in Mozambique tackle the most glaring social, cultural and religious issues - ushering that elephant right up to the front of the room - to boldly share Jesus.

The Great Commission and Digital Conversations

A discussion on the biblical foundations for embracing the digital medium to facilitate gospel invitations and conversations. The discussion will also include an informative best practice guide on social media, emails, and video for beginners and experienced users alike.

This Year in WMU

Plan your year of missions and ministry as you walk through available opportunities in WMU, including national and statewide events and projects.

Unshakable Pursuit

Let's face it – it's easy to get stuck in the mundane. In this breakout session, we'll look at some of the ways God's pursuit of us invites us to make every moment purposeful.

Why Welcome the Stranger?

Time Magazine calls Clarkston, Georgia 'the most diverse square mile in the nation.' Learn how God is bringing many cultures to this Atlanta suburb and to Himself. Discover ways that you, too, can share the love of Christ with those God is bringing to your community.
